

Free Public Program

The Man Camp Dialogues

Are you curious about what life is like in the Bakken man camps? Have you heard the casual talk, read the press reports, and wished for some more reflective observations and open-minded discussion? This free public program is for you.

Scholars from the North Dakota Man Camp Project report on their ongoing inquiry into man camp life—what it is like for residents, what it means to the region. Come join in the conversation.

1:00-3:00pm Sunday, March 8, 2015
High Plains Cultural Center
194 Central Ave. S., Killdeer
(Refreshments to be served)

Hosted by:	Dunn County Historical Society & Museum
Funded by:	North Dakota Humanities Council
Local contact:	Jennifer Strange/541-944-4131/jlstrange@hotmail.com
Project leader:	Tom Isern/701-799-2942/isernt@plainsfolk.com

