

Free Public Program

The Man Camp Dialogues

Are you curious about what life is like in the Bakken man camps? Have you heard the casual talk, read the press reports, and wished for some more reflective observations and open-minded discussion? This program is for you.

Scholars from the North Dakota Man Camp Project report on their ongoing inquiry into man camp life—what it is like for residents, what it means to the region. Come join in the conversation.

2:00-4:00pm Sunday 3 May
The Sibyl Center, 301 1st St SW, Stanley

Hosted by	The Sibyl Center / sibylcenter.org
Funded by	North Dakota Humanities Council & UND
Local contact:	Janinne Paulson / (H) 701-628-3339 / (C) 701-629-9783 jlcpaulson@gmail.com
Program contact:	Tom Isern / 701-799-2942 / isernt@plainsfolk.com

